

- 1. breath mints
Nothing worse than stinky breath to make a potential business partner grab your card and look the opposite direction.
- 2. business cards
Always pack extra so you don't run out; every place is the perfect place to network.
- 3. backup charger
A backup charger for your laptop & mobile is a must, don't let technology be the reason you miss out on a business opportunity.
- 4. suits
Always play it safe, pack neutral coloured suits & shirts such as grey, black & navy. That way, it's easy to mix and match if you're travelling for longer than 3 days.
- 5. switch from duffel to roller bags
Wise men have rollers. Their convenient & easier to waltz through the terminals with.
- 6. invest in a dopp kit
Fill it up with duplicates of your everyday toiletries, if you forget your favorite cologne at a hotel, you'll always have your back up at home.
- 7. black golf t-shirt
When in doubt, wear black! It looks good with a blazer for that impromptu meeting.
- 8. one day travelling
You can check in 24 hours before your flight, save yourself some stress and check in for both flights on that day.
- 9. family pictures
This will ease home sickness when travelling for long periods at a time.
- 10. a list of your contact details
Should your phone run flat & you have to make an urgent call, make sure you atleast have your 5 top contacts.

happy travelling!
