

Cape Town

#loveyourcity

kulula.com

Definitely a round of fish and chips at Mariner's Wharf, Hout Bay.
#loveyourcity

- Sandy-Lee Edwards

Zippling with @SAForestAdv, Seapont Swimming Pool for a lazy afternoon, bike riding on the promenade with @UpCcyclesZA

- Candice Bresler

The Spice Route is a sure winner

- Damien Dominic Kelly

Experience the City Walk. Make it all the way up Table Mountain. Next Saturday morning, get to the Old Biscuit Mill for breakfast; explore Robben Island Mandela Prison... Evening on Long Street. Sunday: cruise to the Peninsula.

- Thabo Mxotwa

Imhoff's Farm in the Southern Suburbs. Restaurants, farm village atmosphere, snake park, children's farm animal yard, camel rides. A great stop on the way to Kommetjie and Cape Point.

- Brian Johns

Kirstenbosch Summer Concerts. The Coffee and Burger culture. Cheese tasting at Fairview. Butterfly world for the kids. Breakfast at Daily Deli in Tamboerskloof. Sunset Cruises. Galileo Open Air Cinema.

- Nicolene Smith

Endless supply of awesome food markets. The beach. The Parks. And, of course, the mountain! #loveyourcity

- Rossella Marrai

Shark Cage Diving! A definite must-do in Cape Town.
#loveyourcity

- Chantel Christine Doherty

Doing the penguin walk at Blouberg beach
#loveyourcity

- Anthea Truter Williams

A must experience is the Deep South of Cape Town; places like Fisherman's Beach in Simon's Town or Kleinplaas Dam
#HighlyRecommend-SimonsTown

- Nicky Good